

Course of Postgraduate Studies

Discussion with the supervising professor concerning the start of postgraduate studies

- preparation of a postgraduate study plan and an application for postgraduate studies

Submission of the application to the Faculty Council

- application submitted to the contact person of the faculty (see Chapter 10)
- application handled by the Faculty Council and decision given by the Rector

Completion of postgraduate studies

- completion of 60 ECTS credits, possible prerequisites and research

Approval of the final degree requirements by the Faculty Council

- application submitted to the contact person of the faculty

Appointment of examiners for the Licentiate thesis by the Faculty Council

- application submitted to the contact person of the faculty
- electronic manuscript to the faculty secretary

Assessment of the Licentiate thesis by the Faculty Council after receiving the statement(s) of the examiners

- two bound copies of the thesis to the contact person of the faculty

Licentiate degree certificate

Submission of the manuscript to the dissertation committee, appointment of preliminary examiners

- application and 4 copies of the dissertation manuscript submitted to the secretary of the committee 2 weeks before the dissertation committee meeting (see Chapter 10 for contacts)
- manuscript to the LUT dissertation committee (statement on starting the examination process)
- Faculty Council appoints preliminary examiners

Granting permission to print the dissertation, choosing the opponent(s) and custos

- after receiving the statements of the preliminary examiners, the Faculty Council decides on granting permission to publish the dissertation
- the Faculty Council appoints opponents and a custos for the public defence of the dissertation

Public defence of the dissertation, statement of the opponent(s) to the Faculty Council

Assessment of the dissertation by the Faculty Council

Doctoral degree certificate

Conferment ceremony