I. NETWORKED BUSINESS DESIGN 18 June 2013, 11 – 12:45
At the core of participatory innovation is the challenge of bringing together a spread of stakeholders to transform business. This session explores untraditional ways of doing this in out-of-the ordinary contexts.

01. Using social media for asynchronous collaboration within collaborative networks
Nick Sturkenboom, Ehsan Baha, Lu Yuan and Gabriele Tempesta, Eindhoven University of Technology

02. Communication design for social innovation in packaging supply chain
Valeria Bucchetti, Erik Ciravegna and Umberto Tolino, Politecnico di Milano

03. Inter-organisational knowledge exchange in networked innovation
Christiane Maurer and Rianne Valkenburg, The Hague University of Applied Sciences

Discussion/ Tuomo Uotila

II. INNOVATION BROKER 18 June 2013, 13:45 – 15:30
This session investigates the challenges of those people that initiate business innovation – the role we often take ourselves: the brokers that bring stakeholders together, the facilitators that organize workshops and participation.

04. Expressive evaluation with theatrical images
Anne Kallio, Anne Pässilä and Tuija Oikarinen, Lappeenranta University of Technology

05. The changing role of actors in the participatory project for rural craftspeople
Ellya Zulaikha and Margot Brereton, Queensland University of Technology

06. Project cycles for innovation in insurance market
Thamya Rocha, Samara Tanaka and Isabel K. Adler, MJV Technology and innovation

Discussion

III. INNOVATION BROKER THEATRE 18 June 2013, 15:50 – 17:30

IV. ACTIONABLE INFORMATION 19 June 2013, 10:15 – 12:30
Business innovation relies on knowledge about the world outside the organization, but to bring such contradictory and provocative knowledge into the company is difficult. What does it mean to ‘contextualize’ information? How can visualization, tangibility and arts help?

07. Co-operative inquiry for innovation
Tuija Oikarinen*, Tamara Carleton and Antti-Jussi Tahvanainen, *Lappeenranta University of Technology, Innovation Leadership Board LLC, Etlatieto Oy

08. Collaborative workshops for strategic roadmaps
Alexandra Mack, Pitney Bowes

09. Supporting organizational learning with visual arts
Tim Tompson, University of New South Wales

10. Innovation labs as designed spaces for exchange and enactment
Isabel K. Adler, Fabricio Astua De Moraes and Camila Jankavski, MJV Tecnology and innovation

Discussion

V. BUSINESS DESIGN SUPPORT 20 June 2013, 9:30 – 12
In what ways is it possible to support organizations in innovating their business? Innovation labs and experience exchange and teaching take important roles. What does it take to transform innovation practices?

11. Visualising complex information through tangible tools
Patricia Lima, University of Southern Denmark

12. Co-designing sustainable meals
Young-ae Hahn, Tarja Toikka, Tania Rodriguez-Kaarto and Heidi Uppa, Aalto University
13. Lead-user needs and trends within sustainable transport
Nirmal Morjaria and Tracy Ross, Loughborough University

14. How tangible arrows create innovative relations
Robin van Oorschot, University of Southern Denmark

Tangible perspectives discussion / Jacob Buur