

Mari Kallioinen-Mänttäre

Top International
Managers in Engineering

Mari Kallioinen-Mänttäre acts as the provost of LUT University. Kallioinen-Mänttäre has worked at LUT as a professor (Separation technology for biorefineries), a department head (Separation Science), and the dean of the School of Engineering Sciences.

She has also been an LUT board member and is currently a member of the university's management committee. In her role as provost, Kallioinen-Mänttäre is responsible for the internal strategic and operational management of LUT's research and education.