

Safer Space Guidelines

I will behave in a respectful way

I will not mock, ridicule, belittle, push aside or embarrass anyone by my words, behaviour or actions.

I will respect others

I will respect everyone's right to a quiet and peaceful working environment, their personal space and physical boundaries.

I am open to feedback

It is okay to make mistakes and ask questions.

However, if I offend someone with my actions, I will apologise.

I am open to feedback, and I will strive to adjust my behaviour accordingly.

I will not make assumptions about others

I will not make assumptions about anyone's sexuality, gender, ethnicity, nationality, religion, values, socio-economic background, health or ability based on their appearance or behaviour.

I am allowed to address inappropriate behaviour

If I notice discrimination, harassment or other inappropriate behaviour, I will try to intervene.
